As a part of this reset, students from several counties that were deemed orange in the most recent School Alert System map update on Saturday, Sept. 12, 2020, are now categorized as gold in the new scale. These new designations are effective immediately.

As of today, Tuesday, Sept. 15, 2020, a total of 23 counties are green, while 24 counties are yellow.

Five counties are now gold: Boone, Fayette, Logan, Mingo, and Putnam counties.

Two counties are now orange: Kanawha and Monroe counties.

One county is now red: Monongalia County.
